

Flying Coral Fish Decorative Pillow

MOOOI

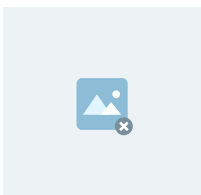

The Flying Coral Fish decorative pillow is part of Moooi's Extinct Animals bedding collection. This 100% raw silk decorative pillow is inspired by the Flying Coral Fish, an extinct animal that most resembled a bright dragonfly in full flight. The skin of the fish was covered with beautiful light blue-grey scales and hypnotising red dots, and this is reflected in the decorative pillow. The front is quilted and embroidered. The back has a red dot pattern in flock print. The decorative pillow is bordered with decorative cord piping.

Detailing

The decorative pillow is made from 100% high quality raw silk. The embroidered design and flock print add a sophisticated touch.
