

Pollination of Hortensia Carpet

ANDRÉS REISINGER

The Pollination of Hortensia Carpet by Andrés Reisinger illustrates the power of transformation and growth. Each carpet in the collection captures the essence of a different season. From the vibrant blooms of spring to the fiery hues of autumn. With bold colours and intricate designs, the carpets serve as a reminder that life is always changing, in beautiful ways. Reisinger's digital artwork 'Pollen' inspired the collection. As an artist who loves to surround himself with natural elements, he created the Pollination of Hortensia carpets to bring the beauty of nature into any home. The carpets are available in different shapes and colourways.

Detailing

After creating his digital artwork 'Pollen', Andrés Reisinger gave in to his desire to capture its beauty in physical form.
